PROCEDURES TO APPEAL THE ZONING CODE ENFORCEMENT OFFICER'S DECISION

1. The petition must be filed with the Director of Planning and Development at least twenty (20) days prior to the meeting at which it is to be considered by the Board of Adjustment. The following items are required at the time of submission:
  - A) A completed application.
  - B) A filing fee of $500.00.
2. An application may only be withdrawn by written request from the applicant. If such request is received prior to submitting public notices to the newspaper, filing fees may be refunded. However, if the application is withdrawn after public notices are published, application fees cannot be refunded.
3. All evidence and exhibits, including maps, pictures, drawings, mounted materials, models, etc., presented at the public hearing become part of the application and the permanent record, and shall be considered the property of the County. Such items shall not be returned to the petitioner. Where an identical copy not yet mounted can be provided for the County's record, then the petitioner may request in writing the retrieval of mounted documents.
4. The Alexander County/Taylorsville Board of Adjustment, meets on the 2nd Thursday of every month and call for a public hearing on all appeals or administrative reviews. A notice of public hearing is published in the Taylorsville Times. The Board may choose to uphold or reverse the decision of the Zoning/Code Enforcement Officer. The Board of Adjustment action is final unless appealed in a court of law (Superior Court of Alexander County).
